Spinal cord tumor
Delayed malignant development of a congenital teratoma with spina bifida. Case report, 532
Ependymoma of the cauda equina with distant metastasis, Case report, 424
Intramedullary epidermoid tumors of the thoracic spinal cord. Report of two cases, 296
Intramedullary spinal neurilemmoma. Case report, 414
Metameric spinal cord and skin hemangiomas. Case report, 199
Primary spinal cord malignant melanoma. Case report, 410
Solitary intramedullary carcinomatous metastasis in the spinal cord. Case report, 648
Spontaneous activity of alpha motor neurons in intramedullary spinal cord tumor, 573
Value of angiography in intraspinal mediastinal hemangiopericytoma. Case report, 535
Stereotaxic surgery
Hazards of stereotaxic thalmectomy. Added safety factor in corroborating x-ray target localization with neurophysiological methods, 173
A technique for making thin brain slices for stereotaxic measurements. Technical note, 302

TAKEUCHI, S. See Nishimoto, A., 255
TAREN, J., GUIOT, G., DEROME, P., and TRIGO, J. C. Hazards of stereotaxic thalamectomy. Added safety factor in corroborating x-ray target localization with neurophysiological methods, 173
Technical suggestion
Apparatus for continuous ventricular drainage, 588
Simple device to immobilize a needle during ventriculography, 566
Single unit for bipolar, monopolar coagulation, and cutting, 577
Teratoma
Delayed malignant development of a congenital teratoma with spina bifida. Case report, 532
Thalamectomy
Hazards of stereotaxic thalamectomy. Added safety factor in corroborating x-ray target localization with neurophysiological methods, 173

Vein of Galen
Excision of thrombosed vein of Galen aneurysm in an infant. Case report, 619
Venous varix
Large varix of the superior ophthalmic vein: Demonstration by angular phlebography and removal by electrically induced thrombosis. Case report, 202
Vertebral artery
External carotid origin of the dominat vertebral artery. Case report, 300
Thrombosis of the vertebral artery from hyperextension injury to the neck. Case report, 540
Ventriculostomy
Hypothalamic ventriculostomy with catheter. Technical note, 655
The selection of patients for third ventriculostomy based on experience with 33 operations, 252
